Corporal Skeen Keen for Kaiser.

Richmond friends have received news of the safe arrival overseas of Corporal Milton L. Skeen, the big mountaineer, who was wont to grace the cafeterias on week-ends while he was in training at Camp Lee, and boast of what he was going to do to "old Kaiser Bill" if once, by the grace of God, he got "over there" and "at him."

Of superb physique, deeply tanned by sun and wind, his blue eyes keen-with the look which comes of a life spent in the open, he laughed his was transferred to the machine gun crowd he was as pleased as a child with a new toy.

The guos were almost human to him and the mastery of them a constant delight. "Me and Uncle Sammy," he would boast will just naturally wipe old Bill and his gang plumb off the

H. D. Warden, treasurer and general manager of the Jackson Vehicle Co., 300 S. State St., Jackson, Miss., is another well-known southern business man who has given his unqualified endorsement to Tanlac for the benefits he has derived from it. Mr. Warden said:

"I have gained twenty five pounds on three bottles of Tanlac and feel better than I have juned and ninety one pounds, but I took maiaria and fell off forty pounds. My wenkened condition made me nervous and irritable. Had such pains in my back and sides that I couldn't sleep and no medicine I took did me any good.

"My family induced me to take Tanlac and 1 began to improve at once. I have gained twenty-five pounds already, and at the rate my weight and strength is coming back I will soon be as well and storng as I rever was. The malaria is entirely gone, my stomach is in splendid condition, the pains have left my sides and back, my nerves are steady as a rock and I feel like a different person."

the E. E. White Coal Company of Glea White recently appoint ed production manager of the New River and Winding Gulf Coal Fields of West Virginia by the United States Fuel Administration. Production Manager White To waste in these times is to fight on the side of the Kalser is of the opinion that any to whom the term "slacker" might justly be applied are scarce in the coal fields. He says:

"The miner is patroitic and no one may quartic the patroitic and no one may quartic. one may question his courage. He has given his boy to the country and is now giving every ounce of effort to carry that boy food and sustenance across the sea; clothing to keep him warm during the coming winter and the means with which to end the existence of the Ger man butchers for all time." Mr. White has just made a tour of the district of which he has been appointed production manager and he says that:

"In travelling through the district I see miners after a good day's work returning to pro-duce more coal during the night shift. A desire to do their bit has caused the farmers to enter the mines as loaders. As one far-mer expressed it: I raise wheat during the day and mine coal at night to carry the flour to our boys in France." A preach-er and his congregation volunteered one night last week to load a 100 tons. A worn-out miner writes: "I have finished my mining, but I am going to pay someone to do a day's work for me." In such an at-mosphere as this do you think there is any room for a slacker to exist?"

SUGAR

A young college boy now serving as a private in France writes his mother. If you have any chance to ship us some sweets, don't fail to do so. The Triangle Hute are fairly mobbed when a candy consignment arrives and I have never yet getten there in time to get my share. And we must remember what this graving is an indication that these hals need the sugar, they are better soldiers if they get it—not only happior, but better fighters.

Canada has gone us one better on the sugar ration and is down to one and one-half pounds a month.

Every man, woman and child can help send augar to the front if they will remember to put less sugar in their glass or cup and then see that it is thoroughly dissolved. Make "Stir Like a Madman" the slogan.

The sait shortage which the Southeastern States experienced has spring and winter was not so much from a shortage of the sait as from a shortage of coal for use in the manufacture, and of cars in which to ship the finished product.

The Staple Grocers' Division of the Pood Administration adivises that as much the same transportation conditions are likely to prevail this fall and whiter, the trade should place its sait orders how, or certainly far enough ahead to unit that the delay in ship ment.
